

Herts Job Fair 2009

Recruitment + Education + Training

Putting you in touch with outstanding candidates

This year there are three more reasons not to miss out on October's Herts Job Fair. The recession has led to increasing unemployment locally. In response Herts Job Fair now incorporates Training and Education.

We will be welcoming colleges and trainers to give visitors more options.

The second big change is also a response to changing times: this year's job fair will have a virtual counterpart. An online job fair will appear on www.stalbansreview.co.uk for two weeks either side of the actual Oaklands fair.

Lastly we'll be promoting the event to an even wider audience; advertising heavily both in print and online.

THE VENUE

OAKLANDS COLLEGE

Oaklands' Smallford Campus is an ideal venue for Herts Job Fair 2009. Set in a parkland estate, it is easy to get to from anywhere in the county.

Oaklands' Smallford Campus, Hatfield Road, St Albans, Hertfordshire AL4 0JA
